JOB DESCRIPTION

TENURE-TRACK ASSISTANT PROFESSOR FOR AN ASSOCIATE PROFESSORSHIP

OR

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

Area of specialisation: Evaluation of Interventions in Psychology
Full-time position: 100%

Profile

- PhD in psychology or equivalent qualification;
- Proven research record in the field of developing, implementing, evaluating and disseminating psychological interventions;
- Expertise in quantitative methodology and openness to pursuing research based on hybrid methods;
- Expertise in collaborating with public institutions (public administrative authorities, associations, international organisations, etc.);
- Academic teaching experience;
- Links with international research networks in the field;
- Ability to attract external research funding;
- Proficiency in French and English, orally and in writing;
- Ability to teach in French within two years.

Teaching (45%)

Six hours a week of teaching throughout the year at Bachelor’s (BA) and Master’s (MA) level:

- Methods for evaluating interventions in psychology, MA lecture course, 28 hours/year (equivalent to 1 hour a week throughout the year), 3 ECTS credits.
- Experimental psychology and quantitative data analysis, BA course/seminar, 56 hours/year (equivalent to 2 hours a week throughout the year), 6 ECTS credits.
- Areas of application and professional fields in psychology, BA lecture course, 28 hours/year (equivalent to 1 hour a week throughout the year), 3 ECTS credits.
- MA course/seminar on the post-holder’s area of specialisation (e.g. psychological interventions and public institutions), 28 hours/year (equivalent to 1 hour a week throughout the year), 3 ECTS credits.
- Supervision of Master’s and MA dissertations, equivalent to 28 hours’ teaching (equivalent to 1 hour/year), 3 ECTS credits

The post-holder will supervise Master’s dissertations, internships and theses.

A release from two hours’ weekly teaching / year will be granted during any pre-tenure period.

Research (45%)

The post-holder will pursue their own research in the field of evaluating interventions in psychology, contribute to the Institute's quantitative methodology consultation and collaborate with other members of the Institute of Psychology to support research on evaluating psychological interventions.

They will be expected to produce international-level academic research publications.

The post-holder will be an active member of the Institute of Psychology (IP) and will participate in the academic activities of the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences.

They will seek external funding, in particular from the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF).

Administrative responsibilities (10%)

In accordance with statutory requirements and in the name of collegiality, the post-holder will take on any administrative tasks that may be assigned to them by the Institute, Faculty, University or university decision-making bodies.

Institutional environment

The post is located in the Institute of Psychology and the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences.

Starting date: 1 August 2025 – or to be agreed

Candidates are invited to submit their application via the online recruitment platform, including:

- a covering letter,
- an academic CV including a full publications list,
- a copy of their diplomas and qualifications,
- a selection of five main publications in the field relevant to the position, in PDF format.

Only applications submitted via the online system will be considered.

References: Three names with their e-mail addresses are sufficient. There is no need to contact them at this stage of the application process; we will do so if necessary.

Further information can be obtained from: recrutement-enseignant.ssp@unil.ch

Deadline for applications: 15 August 2024

UNIL is committed to gender equality and encourages applications from women.

www.unil.ch/egalite

UNIL supports the next generation of academic staff.

www.unil.ch/graduatecampus